

Design A Board Game Challenge

- Look at examples of other board games you like to play. You might want to play a few for research purposes.
- Develop your own design.
- Make and decorate your board game.
- Play your board game! What did you think of it? Are you happy with it or are there any improvements you would like to make?
- Share your completed board games with the school.

Enjoy!